TO THE HONORABLE DENNIS MONTALI, UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCH COURT
JUDGE, THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND ALL INTERESTED PARTIES:

Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP represents thousands of victims of the Fires started by PG&E in 2017 (generally referred to as the “North Bay Fires”), 2018 (“Camp Fire”) and 2019 (“Kincade Fire”). Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP respectfully files this motion on behalf of William and Midori Verity and Bounce House Entertainment, Inc. dba Party Jump/dba Starry Movie Nights (“Movants”) to deem timely late filing of proofs of claims (“Motion”).

1                   I.       SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

2                   A proof of claim may be deemed timely upon a showing of excusable neglect and lack of
3                   prejudice to the Debtors. In this case, Movants were unaware of the proper filing procedures and
4                   bar date after their small business suffered staggering losses from the 2017 Tubbs Fire, then again
5                   from the 2018 Camp Fire, and again from the 2019 Kincade Fire. Movants were overwhelmed
6                   with the logistical challenges of recovering from their business losses and equipment damages,
7                   issues which occupied all of their time and resources. Because their claim is a consequence of 8                   excusable neglect, there is no danger of prejudice to the Debtors, and the claims were made in
9                   good faith, this Motion should be granted to allow William and Midori Verity and Bounce House
10                  Entertainment, Inc. dba Party Jump/dba Starry Movie Nights to have their claims deemed timely.

11                  II.      FACTUAL BACKGROUND

12                  A. Movants' Claims Arising from Tubbs Fire

13                  Creditors William and Midori Verity ("Veritys") own their home at 5387 Faught Rd.,
14                  Santa Rosa, CA. Creditor Bounce House Entertainment, Inc. dba Party Jump/dba Starry Movie
15                  Nights ("Bounce House") is located at 5387 Faught Road #B, Santa Rosa, CA. The Veritys own
16                  and operate Bounce House, a party rental business. Bounce House rents party-related equipment,
17                  such as inflatable bounce houses and dunk tanks, to schools, churches, cities, counties,
18                  companies, and individuals. Their inventory is maintained in a 4,500-square foot warehouse on 19                  their residential property. The Veritys, life-long residents of Santa Rosa, purchased their home in 20                  1998 and incorporated Bounce House in the same year.

21                  On October 8, 2017, the Tubbs Fire began burning through Napa and Sonoma counties.
22                  Around 1:30 A.M on October 9, 2017, neighbors of the Veritys pounded on their door, waking
23                  them up. The fire was roaring down the valley, embers encircled their property, and they were
24                  overcome by the smoke. The Veritys evacuated immediately. The fire would eventually come
25                  within one quarter mile of their property. The Veritys' home sustained significant smoke and ash
26                  damage. Bounce House's warehouse and equipment also sustained significant smoke and ash
27                  damage as a result of the fire. The Veritys were not allowed back onto their property until
28                  October 24, 2017. During that time all scheduled events for the company were cancelled. Once

1 they began to assess the extent of the smoke and ash damages, they recognized Bounce House's
2 equipment would require thorough cleaning and repair. This resulted in the cancellation of many
3 events in November and December 2017. The Veritys' business insurance did not cover smoke
4 and fire damage and the Veritys did most of the smoke and ash cleanup themselves. See
5 Declaration of Uzair Saleem ("Saleem Decl.")

6 In the aftermath of the fire, Bounce House suffered significant property and economic
7 damages along with loss of future business opportunities. Additionally, the Veritys were
8 overcome by their own emotional distress and physical injury from their fire evacuation,
9 displacement, and the clean-up that both their residence and their business dwelling required. The
10 logistical challenges of recovering from their business losses and equipment damages occupied
11 all of their time and resources. The Bounce House business suffered losses again as a result of the
12 Camp Fire in 2018, when air quality conditions canceled several outdoor events, and then again
13 as a result of the Kincade Fire in 2019. After the third fire, for the third year in a row, the Veritys
14 attempted to assess the scope of the emotional and financial toll these damages were causing to 15 themselves and their business.

16 In March of 2020, the Veritys contacted Skikos, Crawford, Skikos & Joseph, LLP
17 ("Skikos") to evaluate its claim against PG&E for damages sustained from the Kincade Fire.
18 During the normal course of due diligence, Skikos inquired about possible damages from the
19 2017 and 2018 fires. It was not until the Veritys sought the advice of counsel regarding their 2019
20 Kincade Fire damages did they appreciate the viability of their claims related to their 2017 and
21 2018 fire damages. As a result, due to excusable unawareness, Veritys did not timely file a proof
22 of claim for their 2017 and 2018 damages until after the bar date. See ("Saleem Decl.")

23 III. LEGAL ARGUMENT

24 In Chapter 11 proceedings, bankruptcy courts have broad discretion to accept late filings,
25 including proofs of claim, where tardiness is the consequence of "excusable neglect." Fed. R.
26 Bank. Pro. 9006(b)(1). This standard is "flexible," and permits the Court to allow "late filings
27 caused by inadvertence, mistake, or carelessness, as well as by intervening circumstances beyond
28 the party's control." Pioneer Inv. Servs. Co. v. Brunswick Assocs. Ltd. P'ship, 507 U.S. 380, 389

1 (1993). Where the party's delay is caused by overwhelming personal distress, a late filing may be
2 allowed on grounds of excusable neglect. See e.g., In re Nw. Territorial Mint, LLC, No. AP 16
3 1217-CMA, 2018 WL 6187762, at *5 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. Nov. 27, 2018) ("Excusable neglect can
4 include sudden death, disability or illness of counsel, a close family member of counsel, or . . . the
5 party."); In re Schultz, 254 B.R. 149, 154 (B.A.P. 6th Cir. 2000) (same); TCI Group Life Ins. Plan
6 v. Knoebber, 244 F.3d 691, 699 (9th Cir. 2001) (excusable neglect where party was experiencing 7 extreme personal difficulties and was "distraught") (overruled on other grounds); Comm. for 8 Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824 (9th Cir. 1996) (holding that "compelling
9 circumstances" in one's personal life may constitute excusable neglect).

10 The test for excusable neglect is "at bottom an equitable [inquiry]." Pioneer Inv. Servs.
11 Co., 507 U.S. at 395. Courts in the Ninth Circuit generally examine four (4) factors in 12 their analysis: (i) the danger of prejudice to the non-movant, (ii) the length of delay and its 13 potential impact on the judicial proceedings, (iii) the reason for the delay, and (iv) whether the 14 movant acted in good faith. See id. Each of these four factors weighs heavily in favor of the Veritys
15 and Bounce House. Accordingly, their late proof of claims should be deemed timely.

16 First, the Verity's and Bounce House's claims will not prejudice PG&E, there is no
17 danger of prejudice here. The value of Verity's and Bounce House's claims are marginal relative
18 to the Debtors' estates and the allowance of those claims will not disrupt the reorganization or 19 distribution process. Debtors' estates are solvent, and all creditors stand to be paid. See, e.g., In re
20 Best Payphones, Inc., 523 B.R. 54, 75-6 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2015) and In re Sheehan Mem'l Hosp.,
21 507 B.R. 802, 803 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2014) (where the chapter 11 estate is solvent, "the proper
22 remedy for a late filing is not the expungement of a claim, but its allowance as a tardily filed 23 claim only.).

24 Second, despite the late filing, Verity's and Bounce House's claims will have essentially
25 zero impact on the judicial proceedings and will not change PG&E's reorganization process.
26 There are tens of thousands of similarly situated claimants as the Veritys and Bounce House and 27 their claims will be placed among them, resulting in no noticeable impact upon the distribution
28 process. See e.g., In re Dix, 95 B.R. 134, 138 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1988) (allowing proof of claim

1 filed two-years late because “there is no indication [of] a negative impact on efficient court
2 administration”); In re Earth Rock, Inc., 153 B.R. at 63 (finding excusable neglect where eight-
3 month delay would not impact reorganization proceedings).

4 Third, the factual circumstances in the Veritys’ and Bounce House’s case warrants
5 excusable neglect. Bounce House is owned and operated by husband-and-wife William and 6 Midori Verity. Bounce House rents party-related equipment, such as inflatable bounce houses and 7 dunk tanks, to schools, churches, cities, counties, companies, and individuals.

8 On October 8, 2017, the Tubbs Fire began burning through Napa and Sonoma counties.
9 Around 1:30 A.M on October 9, 2017, neighbors of the Veritys pounded on their door, waking
10 them up. The fire was roaring down the valley, embers encircled their property, and they were
11 overcome by the smoke. The Veritys evacuated immediately. The fire would eventually come
12 within one quarter mile of their property. The Veritys’ home sustained significant smoke and ash
13 damage. Bounce House’s warehouse and equipment also sustained significant smoke and ash
14 damage as a result of the fire. The Veritys were not allowed back onto their property until
15 October 24, 2017. During that time all scheduled events for the company were cancelled. Once
16 they began to assess the extent of the smoke and ash damages, they recognized Bounce House’s
17 equipment would require thorough cleaning and repair. This resulted in the cancellation of many
18 events in November and December 2017. The Veritys’ business insurance did not cover smoke
19 and fire damage and the Veritys did most of the smoke and ash cleanup themselves. See
20 Declaration of Uzair Saleem (“Saleem Decl.”)

21 In the aftermath of the fire, Bounce House suffered significant property and economic
22 damages along with loss of future business opportunities. Additionally, the Veritys were
23 overcome by their own emotional distress and physical injury from their fire evacuation,
24 displacement, and the clean-up that both their residence and their business dwelling required. The
25 logistical challenges of recovering from their business losses and equipment damages occupied
26 all of their time and resources. The Bounce House business suffered losses again as a result of the
27 Camp Fire in 2018, when air quality conditions canceled several outdoor events, and then again
28 as a result of the Kincade Fire in 2019. After the third fire, for the third year in a row, the Veritys

1 attempted to assess the scope of the emotional and financial toll these damages were causing to
2 their business.

3 In March of 2020, the Veritys contacted Skikos, Crawford, Skikos & Joseph, LLP
4 (“Skikos”) to evaluate its claim against PG&E for damages sustained from the Kincade Fire.
5 During the normal course of due diligence, Skikos inquired about possible damages from the
6 2017 and 2018 fires. It was not until the Veritys sought the advice of counsel regarding their 2019
7 Kincade Fire damages did they appreciate the viability of their claims related to their 2017 and
8 2018 fire damages. As a result, due to excusable unawareness, Veritys did not timely file a proof
9 of claim for their 2017 and 2018 damages until after the bar date. See (“Saleem Decl.”) See e.g.,
10 Comm. for Idaho's High Desert, Inc. v. Yost, 92 F.3d 814, 824 (9th Cir. 1996) (“compelling
11 circumstances” in one’s personal life may constitute excusable neglect).

12 Ultimately, The Veritys’ and Bounce House’s claim was made in good faith.
13 Overwhelmed by staggering economic losses and trying to manage the logistical challenges of 14 recovering from the fire, the Veritys and Bounce House were not represented by counsel until 15 after the bar date and did not have the time or opportunity to comprehend filing a claim in the 16 bankruptcy for their loss. Had they been informed or aware of the bar date, they would have 17 timely filed a proof of claim.

18 IV. CONCLUSION

19 For the foregoing reasons, this Motion should be granted and the Veritys’ and Bounce
20 House Entertainment Inc’s claim should be deemed timely.

Declaration of Uzair Saleem

I, Uzair Saleem, declare as follows:

1. I am an individual over 18 years of age and competent to make this Declaration.
2. If called upon to testify, I could and would competently testify as to the facts set forth in this Declaration. The facts set forth below are true based on my personal knowledge or through information obtained my staff.
3. I am an attorney of the law firm Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, & Joseph LLP and I make this declaration in support of the Motion to Allow/Deem Timely Late Filing of Proof of Claim.
4. Creditors William and Midori Verity and Bounce House Entertainment, Inc. dba Party Jump/dba Starry Movie Nights are survivors of the Tubbs Fire that occurred in 2017.
5. William and Midori Verity (“Verity”) live at 5387 Faught Rd., Santa Rosa, CA. The Veritys operate Bounce House Entertainment, Inc. dba Party Jump/dba Starry Movie Nights (“Bounce House”) out of a 4,500-square foot warehouse at 5387 Faught Road #B, Santa Rosa, CA.
6. The Veritys are life-long residents of Santa Rosa. They purchased their home in 1998 and incorporated their business in the same year.
7. As a result of the Tubbs Fire, the Veritys fled from their home in the middle of the night and suffered severe emotional distress and physical injury as a result of their evacuation. Bounce House’s business equipment sustained significant smoke damage. The business sustained significant losses from contracted work that was cancelled in the month of the fire and the months following it.
8. Bounce House endured additional business losses in 2018 because of poor air quality due to the Camp Fire and then again in 2019 because of the Kincade Fire. The Veritys have worked extremely hard to sustain their business while deal with their own emotional distress and injuries related to the Tubbs Fire, but they did not realize that they potentially had recourse until they sought legal counsel to represent them in their Kincade Fire claim.

1 9. On March 22, 2020, Verity and Bounce House retained Skikos, Crawford, Skikos, &
2 Joseph LLP.

3 10. On December 16, 2020, a Proof of Claim was filed on behalf of William and Midori
4 Verity, Claim Number 106893. On December 17, 2020, a Proof of Claim was filed on
5 behalf of The Verity Family Trust, Claim Number 106894. On December 16, 2020, a
6 Proof of Claim was filed on behalf of Bounce House Entertainment, Inc. dba Party
7 Jump/dba Starry Movie Nights, Claim Number 106892. True and correct copies of the 8 Subject Proof of Claims are attached to this Declaration as Exhibit 1.
9 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed on

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at
<https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. - Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at
<https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.

Attach Supporting Documentation (limited to a single PDF attachment that is less than 5 megabytes in size and under 100 pages):

I have supporting documentation.
(attach below)       I do not have supporting documentation.

PLEASE REVIEW YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS AND REDACT ACCORDINGLY PRIOR TO UPLOADING THEM. PROOFS OF CLAIM AND ATTACHMENTS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS THAT WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR ANYONE TO VIEW ONLINE.

IMPORTANT NOTE REGARDING REDACTING YOUR PROOF OF CLAIM AND SUPPORTING DOCUMENTATION When you submit a proof of claim and any supporting documentation you must show only the last four digits of any social-security, individual's tax-identification, or financial-account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If the claim is based on the delivery of health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services so as to avoid embarrassment or the disclosure of confidential health care information.

A document has been redacted when the person filing it has masked, edited out, or otherwise deleted, certain information. The responsibility for redacting personal data identifiers (as defined in Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9037) rests solely with the party submitting the documentation and their counsel. Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court will not review any document for redaction or compliance with this Rule and you hereby release and agree to hold harmless Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court from the disclosure of any personal data identifiers included in your submission. In the event Prime Clerk or the Clerk of the Court discover that personal identifier data or information concerning a minor individual has been included in a pleading, Prime Clerk and the Clerk of the Court are authorized, in their sole discretion, to redact all such information from the text of the filing and make an entry indicating the correction.

Instructions for Proof of Claim (Fire Claim Related)

United States Bankruptcy Court

You may have a claim against the Debtors for monetary loss, personal injury (including death), or other asserted damages arising out of or related to a fire. You should consider obtaining the advice of an attorney, especially if you are unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process and privacy regulations.

A person who files a fraudulent claim could be fined up to $500,000, imprisoned for up to 5 years, or both.
18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 157 and 3571.

How to fill out this form

- Fill in all of the information about the claim as of the date this claim form is filed.
- If the claim has been acquired from someone else, then state the identity of the last party who owned the claim or was the holder of the claim and who transferred it to you before the initial claim was filed.
- For a minor child, fill in only the child's initials and the full name of the child's parent or guardian. For example, write A.B., a minor child (John Doe, parent). See Bankruptcy Rule 9037.
- You may but are not required to attach supporting documents to this form.
Supporting documents will be gathered, maintained, and provided at a later date as instructed by the Court. If you do attach documents, you should attach redacted documents as supporting documentation will be made publicly available and will not be kept confidential. See the definition of redaction of information below.
- Do not attach original documents because attachments may be destroyed after scanning.
- Question 3. Members of a family may but are not required to file a proof of claim as a family but may, if they choose, submit individual claim forms for each family member that has a claim against the debtors.

- Question 9. If you suffered property damage, then provide the street address of each real property parcel where you suffered property damage. If you were personally evacuated as the result of a fire, then provide the address or intersection closest to where you encountered the fire and began evacuation. If you suffered property damage and were evacuated from a different location, include both. If you were a renter, provide the address of your residence.
- Question 10. This question requests general statements of underlying facts relating to harm and is not intended to be exhaustive or preclusive.
- Question 11. You are not required to include a claim amount with your proof of claim. Providing a claim amount at this time is optional.

Confirmation that the claim has been filed

To receive confirmation that the claim has been filed, enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope and a copy of this form together with the original. You may view a list of filed claims in this case by visiting the Claims and Noticing Agent's website at
<https://restructuring.primeclerk.com/pge>.

Understand the terms used in this form

Claim: A creditor's right to receive payment for a debt that the debtor owed on the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. §101 (5). A claim may be secured or unsecured.

Creditor: A person, corporation, or other entity to whom a debtor owes a debt that was incurred on or before the date the debtor filed for bankruptcy. 11 U.S.C. § 101 (10).

Debtor: A person, corporation, or other entity who is in bankruptcy. In this instance, PG&E Corporation and Pacific Gas & Electric Company.

Information that is entitled to privacy: A Proof of Claim form and any attached documents must show only the last 4 digits of any social security number, an individual's tax identification number, or a financial account number, only the initials of a minor's name, and only the year of any person's date of birth. If a claim is based on delivering health care goods or services, limit the disclosure of the goods or services to avoid embarrassment or disclosure of confidential health care information. You may later be required to give more information if the trustee or someone else in interest objects to the claim.

Proof of claim: A form that shows the creditor has a claim against the debtors on or before the date of the bankruptcy filing (in these cases, January 29, 2019). The form must be filed in the district where the case is pending.

Redaction of information: Masking, editing out, or deleting certain information to protect privacy. Filers must redact or leave out information entitled to privacy on the Proof of Claim form and any attached documents.

Offers to purchase a claim

Certain entities purchase claims for an amount that is less than the face value of the claims. These entities may contact creditors offering to purchase their claims. Some written communications from these entities may easily be confused with official court documentation or communications from the debtor. These entities do not represent the bankruptcy court, the bankruptcy trustee, or the debtor. A creditor has no obligation to sell its claim. However, if a creditor decides to sell its claim, any transfer of that claim is subject to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e), any provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 101 et seq.) that apply, and any orders of the bankruptcy court that apply.
